

Best of E3 2007

Monday, 13 August 2007

This practically sums up everything - the best of the best from E3. E3 is one of the largest games expo designed to let game publishers to show their stuff and glimmer. However, this year a smaller and cost effective E3 came up - not so glimmer ones. Previously advertisers pumped in millions for this expo but we've seen a much smaller version one this year. Enjoy this video clip and pump up your speakers!
